Payment Policy: Payment for all open registration courses must be made in advance, unless the client has established credit with KTA. Advance payments for open registration courses receive a $50 discount if payment is received at least 14 days prior to the training. All open registration courses are eligible for the advanced payment discount. In addition, special group discounts for four or more attending the same training on the same dates are available. Cancellations made less than five working days prior to a course will result in a $50 cancellation fee.

Hotel Arrangements: KTA establishes special hotel rates for all open courses held at KTA in Pittsburgh. While participants are responsible for their own reservations, free daily transportation to and from class is provided by the headquarters hotel. For more information on both private and open registration courses, call KTA's Training Manager at 412.788.1300, Ext. 217.
